

As one of Spokane's largest privately owned low vision clinics, our goal is to aid individuals with sight debilitating conditions to maintain normalcy of lifestyle by utilizing the latest vision-enhancement technology.

Our talented and caring doctors will provide you or your loved one with a comprehensive medical ophthalmic low vision evaluation. With this detailed information, we are then able to determine which vision enhancement devices will best maintain an individual's quality of life and independence.